

SHAME ON SIMON & SCHUSTER

WHY WE'RE HERE

- Tomorrow, Simon & Schuster releases a new book by known AIDS denialist Rebecca V. Culshaw who continues to spread the dangerous lie that HIV doesn't cause AIDS
- We have known that HIV causes AIDS since 1983

AIDS DENIALISM

- Discourages people from getting tested for HIV
- Deters people from taking PrEP, a daily pill or bi-monthly injection that can stop you from getting HIV
- Dissuades people with HIV from taking life-saving medications that prevent HIV spreading to others
- Marginalizes people with HIV and promotes misinformation, confusion and fear-the foundation for criminalizing people with HIV

ACT UP DEMANDS THAT SIMON & SCHUSTER

- Cancel distribution of this book
- Consult with experts to assess future releases and ensure they follow current science
- Create a health advisory group to guarantee that they don't spread deadly misinformation again
- Donate any book profits to community groups working to address HIV treatment and prevention inequities
